ABOUT EM NORMANDIE

EM Normandie was established in 1871 as one of the first Grandes Ecoles and has since been considered as a reference among French business schools.

It holds international accreditations (EQUIS, AACSB) and its Master in Management (Grande Ecole Program) has been recently ranked 74th worldwide by the Financial Times.

Over 5 000 students and trainees attend its programs in one of its five campuses located in France (Le Havre, Caen, Paris), in the UK (Oxford) and in Ireland (Dublin).

EM Normandie has a portfolio of 16 programs, including 6 taught in English and 2 training institutes. Its mission is to educate tomorrow's managers, as responsible executives prepared to lead change in a cross-cultural environment.

EM Normandie promotes the intellectual contributions of its faculty (95 core faculty members) to guarantee success and recognition for students that attended its educational programs.
